CRIPPEN'S TYPIST FREED IN LONDON

Ethel LeNeve Not Guilty as Accessory in the Murder of Belle Elmore.

DID NOT APPEAR ON STAND

Was Under Influence of Dangerous Criminal Since She Was 16 Years Old—No Proof That She Knew of Crime.

London, Oct. 25.—After a trial lasting only a few hours in the New Bailey court today, a jury found Ethel Clara Leneve not guilty as an accessory after the fact in the murder of Cora Belle Crippen, for whose death her husband, Dr. Crippen, will die on the gallows on November 8th.

Miss Leneve was in love with Dr. Crippen and slept in his house on the night of the day following the day upon which the doctor murdered his wife and buried the dismembered parts in the cellar of his Hilldrop Crescent home. She accompanied Crippen in his flight to Canada and with him was arrested and indicted.

From the first she has maintained innocence of any knowledge of the crime, but the Crown alleged that her behavior subsequent to the disappearance of Mrs. Crippen, or Belle Elmore, as she was known on the stage, was such as to betray a guilty knowledge of the murder.

When arraigned today Miss Leneve pleaded not guilty and witnesses were introduced by the prosecution to show that she had experienced periods of great mental distress following Belle Elmore's death. The Crown prosecutor, Richard Muir, introduced such evidence as had been brought out in the earlier hearings. Miss Leneve's counsel, Frederick E. Smith, M. P., asked the jury to bear in mind that his client had been under the influence of Crippen, one of the most dangerous criminals of recent years, since she was 16 years of age. This, he asserted, accounted for her flight in the doctor's company. There was no proof that she had guilty knowledge of the crime. Counsel said that he took upon his own shoulders the responsibility for not putting Miss Leneve in the witness box.

Lord Chief Justice Alverstone, who presided, in summing up for the jury, said that he saw no reason why Dr. Crippen should have told Miss Leneve a story different from that which he told to others.

JACK JOHNSON A LOSER.

Oldfield Easily Outclassed Pugilist in Auto Race.

Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Barney Oldfield, the automobile driver, easily defeated Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion pugilist in a five-mile automobile race here this afternoon. Oldfield won the first two heats of the contest, making a third heat unnecessary. Oldfield won the first heat with a lead of a quarter of a mile, covering the distance in four minutes 44 seconds, and in the second heat led Johnson at the finish 50 yards. The time for the second heat was five minutes 14 2-5 seconds.

Following his victory Oldfield tonight gave out this statement:

"I raced Johnson for neither money nor glory, but to eliminate from my profession an invader who would have had to be reckoned with sooner or later. If Jeffries had fought Johnson five years ago the white man would have won and after Jeffries retired he should never have had to fight him again. If I had ignored Johnson for a year or so he would probably have gained much experience on the tracks and bought high powered cars while I am not getting any better from day to day. I am glad if my victory over Johnson today will have any effect on the 'white man's hope' situation."

THE VANDERBILT TRUSTEES.

A Restraining Order Against Members of the Board.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 25.—Chancellor John Allen today granted a temporary injunction restraining Judge Claude Waller, Robert F. Jackson and J. A. Robbins, from participating in the meetings of the board of trustees of Vanderbilt University.

The purpose sought by those obtaining the order is for N. E. Harris, of Georgia; A. B. Gody, of Texas, and Albert W. Biggs, of Memphis, representing the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to take the place of the men restrained. Bishop E. R. Hendricks, president of the Vanderbilt board of trustees, tendered his resignation today. Judge W. C. Ratcliffe, of Little Rock, succeeds him. Bishop Hendricks retired, however, adhering to the righteousness of his view that the Vanderbilt trustees are self-perpetuating.

Galveston, Texas, Oct. 25.—Receipts of the season's cotton at Galveston since the season opened September 1st today reached one million bales, which broke all previous records, no port having before passed the million bale mark this early in the season.

STUMP SPEAKERS ON THE HUSTINGS

Godwin-Meares Debate at Fayetteville Yesterday—Kitchin Speaks at Pikeville.—Reception at Gadsden.—Other Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., October 25.—Congressman H. L. Godwin, and Iredell Meares, his Republican opponent, engaged in a joint debate here today, speaking before a good-sized crowd in the Cumberland county court house.

Mr. Godwin opened the debate with a clean-cut statement of the issues involved in the campaign and the situation in this district. He said that he was the nominee of the democracy of the Sixth District and was running for Congress; that Mr. Meares was really running to rthe postmastership at Wilmington. All who hope for Democratic success were delighted with Mr. Godwin's speech. Mr. Meares devoted himself chiefly to a defense of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, though he took occasion to declare that he led no defense for Marion Butler but to condemn the Democrats for making him an issue. Mr. Godwin was introduced by H. L. Brothers, and Mr. Meares, by R. W. Herring, both members of the local bar.

Governor at Pikeville.

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 25.—A large crowd went up to Pikeville this afternoon from the city to hear Governor Kitchin speak there and the whole town, township and from adjoining townships, turned out in great numbers to welcome the Governor and give him audience. The Governor surpassed even himself in a speech of more than two hours, in which he squarely met every debatable issue of the campaign and dealt destruction to the hopes of the Republicans for any converts in that section. As is so admirably characteristic of Governor Kitchin, he came out squarely in the open and dealt with every issue of State controversy with a frankness that challenged the admiration of all and showed the fealty of the Democratic party and the Democratic Legislature to the people in platform and enactments with a clearness that none could controvert and defended himself against his captious critics with splendid dignity and unanswerable proofs of the integrity of his conduct and the success of his administration in all departments of State. The great throng that crowded the square on which the Governor spoke gave undivided attention from his opening words to his closing sentence, and there was not one of his hearers, Democrat or Republican, but who felt proud of him as their Governor, and heard him with increased admiration of his patriotism, his statesmanship, his integrity and his candor. He answered his critics and of the last Legislature in his own party, with superb dignity and showed the fallacy of their position and the pique that prompted the criticism. The Governor returned to the city this afternoon through the country and was given an elaborate reception tonight in the hall of the Goldsboro Library from 8 to 10 o clock.

BIG SALE OF TOBACCO.

First of the Big 1909 Burley Pool Disposed of—12 Cents.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 25.—Today marked the first sales in Louisville and Cincinnati of tobacco taken from the big 1909 Burley pool, said to aggregate 80,000,000 pounds. While many planters declare that the prices realized, averaging slightly less than 12 cents a pound, were satisfactory, these prices were regarded in some quarters as decidedly lower than had been expected. The greater part of the Burley sold today at Louisville was bought by the American Tobacco Company. Of the 1909 Burley crop, sales aggregating 308 hogsheads were reported.

One hundred and three hogsheads of 1909 Burley were also sold and the fact that this was thrown on the market sooner than expected, is said to have acounted for low prices on the pooled crop of 1909.

Expectations are that at least 40,000 hogsheads, or approximately 40,000,000 pounds of the 1909 Burley pool, will be sold on the local auction breaks and that the same amount will be disposed of in Cincinnati.

While prices quoted today were, on the whole, regarded as disappointing, the sale of the pool will put into circulation more than $8,000,000 in the tobacco region.

A "BLACK HAND" SCHEME.

Chicago Woman Duped by Member of Own Household.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Fear that her daughter would be kidnapped caused Mrs. Eva L. Buffing to pay tribute demanded in a series of letters, which it developed in the United States court today were written by a member of her own household. This was shown when H. H. Downer was arraigned before United States Commissioner Mark A. Foote on a charge of writing threatening letters.

Downer had been a trusted roomer at Mrs. Buffing's home. Two months ago he was married and brought his wife to live in the house. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Buffing, who had just inherited $1,000 from her father, received a letter signed "Black Hand" and demanding $150. Downer was greatly interested and advised Mrs. Buffing to regard all stipulations and pay the money. Five days later she received another demand which Downer advised her to pay. This was repeated until she had paid $275.

Then she advised postal inspectors and Downer was arrested. He was held to the grand jury in $5,000 bail.

COTTON ADVANCES ON CROP REPORT

Wild Fluctuations Follow Publication of Census Bureau Statistics.

FELL SHORT OF THE ESTIMATE

Practically 600,000 Bales Shorter Than Forecasted by Traders.—Private Reports From the South and West.—Conditions.

New York, Oct. 25.—With an advance of practically $3 a bale in the price of cotton today, seldom, if ever, has the trade, accustomed as it became to rapid fluctuations during the bull compaign of last season, experienced such abrupt transition from weakness to strength displayed by the staple.

The sudden climb followed the publication of the census bureau report showing the amount of cotton ginned to October 18th, was practically 600,000 bales short of the 6,000,000 mark which has been estimated by many traders. The report was made public before the market opened and the first quotations showed an advance over Monday's close. Throughout the day prices worked higher until the close.

On Monday the market had extremely weak and unsettled conditions. January contracts, which on October 14 had sold at 15.01, closed that night at 13.92, a decline of nearly $5.50 per bale from the high record of the season. This decline had been the result of heavy selling inspired by increased estimates of the crop resulting from favorable weather during September and the first half of October and it had been anticipated that the census bureau report would confirm these increased estimates by showing more cotton ginned than to the same date last year.

The report, showing only 5,410,000 bales ginned, compared with 5,530,000 bales to the same date last year, was more than disappointing and recent heavy sellers became alarmed when they found that the report was greatly interpreted as confirming crop estimates of 11,000,000 bales or less. In addition to heavy covering by recent sellers, a big rush of buying orders from outside sources developed. the bull leaders of the earlier season, who are supposed to have taken profits on their long cotton when the market reached the 15 cent level, seemed to be coming back as big buyers on the advance and private reports came in from all over the South from western speculative centers and from many of the chief cotton centers abroad, expecting a very bullish view of the figures. It is doubtful whether a government report ever caused a more general buying movement or caused a more sensational rapid advance.

Aside from the census report there was no fresh feature in the news to attract particular attention. Some few reports were received from Southern sources tending to minimize the bullishness of the census showing on the ground that the comparatively small ginning was due to the lateness of the crop and there was some Southern selling during the day, but these items were completely overshadowed by the strength of the market and the overwhelming volume of bullish comment.

Predictions of twenty cent cotton before the end of the season were frequently heard in local trade circles and the market, in short, reflected a complete revival of the bullish enthusiasm noted on the advance of the earlier season.

RAILROAD ATTORNEYS MEET.

Prominent Lawyers Discuss Rate Matters in New York.

New York, Oct. 25.—Some three score prominent lawyers, representing practically all the important railroad systems in the country, held a conference here today. The conference was a continuation of the meeting held at Portsmouth, N. H., last Summer and the discussion, it was explained after the meeting adjourned turned upon the clauses of the Mann-Elkins act of June 18, 1910, which confer upon the Inter-State Commerce Commission power to suspend rates for a possible ten months.

Other questions relating to the operation of the Inter-State Commerce law were also considered. The constitutionality of all these provisions was questioned, but no official information regarding the conference or whether and decisions were reached, was forthcoming.

Henry L. Stone, of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, acted as chairman of the meeting and among those in attendance were Clyde Brown, of the New York Central; C. W. Bunn, of the Northern Pacific; H. T. Wickham, of the C. & O.; and A. P. Thom, of the Southern Railway.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer returned to New Orleans tonight from a visit to the plantation of former Congressman Theodore Wilkinson near the city. Continuing his tour of inspection of United States naval station he will leave New Orleans tomorrow morning for Pensacola, Fla. From Pensacola he will go to Guantanamo, Cuba.

CONFESSES SWINDLING GAME

Man Arrested in Charotte Returned Imitation Stones for Real Diamonds.—Two Arrests Made.—Operated in Two States.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 25.—A unique swindling game far reaching in operation and involving prominent diamond importers, was laid bare here today, when J. W. Napier and W. P. Duke, residence unknown, were arrested on warrants sworn out by United States Postoffice Inspector Bulla, of Washington, and bound over by United States Commissioner Cobb for the Federal court. Duke collapsed, following the arrest, turned State's evidence and unfolded the operations of the gang to the commissioner without restraint.

Briefly the scheme was to order diamonds from a responsible concern C. O. D., subject to examination, substitute imitations for the real diamonds and return the shipments to the importers with some flimsy excuse as to flaws in the stones. The gang operated successfully in Rock Hill, S. C., Branchville, S. C., Westville, S. C., Charlotte and other neighboring towns and cities, using James Parrish, an ignorant country boy, as a decoy.

Asking examination of the gems, the importers were led to ship the precious stones to Parrish. On arrival at the express office, Duke, who professed to be a jeweler, would show up with professional care, examine them and with some flimsy excuse, turn them back to the express company to be returned, taking care, during the examination, to substitute the paste germs for the original. The imitation stones were supplied by a house in Terre Haute, Ind. Parrish was discharged by Commissioner Cobb while Duke and Napier were held in bonds of $2,500 each. Duke made a full confession of the affair. The only victim of the pair disclosed during the preliminary examination, was that of Daniel Lowe & Company, Salem, Mass.

A SENSATIONAL ADDRESS.

Regarding Race Suicide Before Virginia Medical Society.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.—In one of the most sensational addresses ever heard in Norfolk, Dr. E. T. Brady, of Abingdon, Va., president of the Virginia Medical Society, tonight startled 200 physicians who heard him.

The presidential address came after Robert B. Tunstall had welcomed the doctors to Norfolk and Dr. Geo. Tucker Hardison, of New York, had made an eloquent response.

"Squeamishness is never sincere and sincerity is my only excuse", said Dr. Brady. "I am aware that I am touching upon a subject unusual in a public address. If the does seems drastic remember that drastic measures are needed to put us in working condition.

"We must give the situation frank recognition. We are blindly following the fetish of business at the expense of fraternity.

"Even the pathetic public is recognizing the possibilities of race suicide. There are exactly 350 cold blooded premeditated murders of defenseless innocents for every 500 children brought into the world. Think of it! And the large majority of these horrible crimes are perpetrated by so-called Christians and intelligent wives, who thus from their vanted social height give an example for a doctrine of convenience and selfishness.

"Vanity, social aspirations, fashions ignorance, and venereal diseases and fads all conspire against the unborn."

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—The grand jury summoned to investigate the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building by an explosion and fire was empanelled today by the Superior court. Charles Weeks, a lumber man was chosen foreman of the jury which is made up in the main of ranchers, merchants, packers and fruit growers.

Athens, Oct. 25.—A decree was published today dissolving the National Assembly and fixing November 28 as the date for the elections for the new revisionist chamber.

DRIFT OF BALLOON STILL A MYSTERY

Two Aeronauts May Have Already Perished in the Wilds of Canada.

SEARCH PROVING FRUITLESS

Possibility of Rescuing the Men Seems Gloomy—Opinion is Divided. Black Fastness of the North—One Clue.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 25.—The black fastness of the North tonight still held the secret of the lost balloonists, Alan R. Hawley and Augustus Post, of New York, and their sky ship, the America II., which left St. Louis eight days ago with their competitors in the international distance contest.

Various rumors have reached the bureau established here by Edmond P. Stratton, representing the Aero Club, of America, but when sifted down they produced nothing that would indicate with any degree of definiteness the whereabouts of the aeronauts.

What appeared to be a promising clue developed early in the day when a dispatch from Hunteville stated that a guide, Richard Cole, and a hunting party, had seen a balloon on Thursday, 20 miles north of Bisco, Ont. This item of news, taken in connection with the fact that all the other balloons in the contest were known to have come to earth on Wednesday, inspired great hopes that something definite to work on had been obtained. Later in the day, however, it was learned from Dr. C. Meyers, of Toronto, a member of the hunting party, that the guide was mistaken in the day.

The balloon was seen on Wednesday, according to Dr. Meyers and might, therefore, have been either the Isle de France or the Azurea, both of which landed in that neighborhood. The idea that the party saw the America has not been entirely given up, but the incident immediately lost most of its significance with the change in date.

Opinion here is divided as to the possibility of rescuing the men even if they passed safely over Lake Huron and Georgian Bay into the vast wilderness of northern Ontario and Quebec or the Ungava district, still further north.

Prof. R. W. Bock, director of the geological survey, who knows the rugged and unpeopled country like a book, is outspoken in his opinion that aeronauts will surely perish if they sailed into the far northern sections. There are parts of it, he said, where Indians and half-breed hunters have gone and starved to death.

Other officials, including Sir Wilfred Laurier, who is taking a keen interest in the search for the lost men, believe they will come out all right, especially if they landed south of the new line of the transcontinental railway.

Balloon America Was Seen.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—Lewis Spindler, representative of the Aero Club of St. Louis, in the search for Alan R. Hawley and August Post, the missing pilots of the America II., which left St. Louis in the International Balloon race on October 17th, tonight started from Toronto to Chapleau, Ont., according to a telegram he sent to the Aero Club officers. He said that John S. Rogers, chief of the Ontario Provincial Police, had assured him of the authenticity of the report that the America II was seen at Chapleau Tuesday night, October 18th. Acting on this information Mr. Spindler will spend his time at Chapleau and Sudbury, Ont. The America II. was reported as passing the former town at 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

The Aero Club officers don't accept the statement of the Milwaukee weather bureau that there is a probability that Hawley and Post were caught in contrary winds on Lake Superior Tuesday night and forced to descend in the lake.

It is probable that the idea of having St. Louis von Phuland, Jos. M. O'Reilly, crew of the Million Club balloon start from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., in the St. Louis No. 3 as a relief party in search of the New Yorkers will be abandoned. There is a wide divergence of opinion concerning the practicability of the plan to send Von Phuland O'Reilly out in another balloon to search for Hawley and Post.

Von Phul said tonight that he was still preparing for the trip.

LIVELY NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

Col. Roosevelt Greets Citizens in Central Part of State—Rooseveltism as Issue—Dix Turned on Stimson.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The campaign grew livelier today as Theodore Roosevelt traveled about central New York State. Rain fell all day long, but at every place at which Col. Roosevelt stopped crowds of moist citizens gathered to cheer him.

Hundreds stood in the rain to hear his outdoor speeches and every building in which he spoke was jammed to the doors.

In his speeches he dwelt particularly on Rooseveltism as an issue. He told the people that some business men of the State were afraid of it. He said that any fear of him or of Henry L. Stimson, Republican candidate for Governor, was baseless and that the alarm had been raised by Wall Street.

Col. Roosevelt also replied to John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor, who said yesterday that the colonel had misrepresented him by saying that he had been connected with the Wall Paper Combine. The colonel did not make the apology which Mr. Dix demanded. He insisted that Mr. Dix had not shown that he was not connected with the trust which the Supreme Court declared illegal.

Col. Roosevelt spoke today at Penn Yan, Canandaigua, Geneva, Waterloo, Seneca Falls and Auburn and Syracuse.

The speech tonight in large part was an appeal to business men not to be alarmed at Rooseveltism. He began by reading the circular sent out over the names of Charles F. Murphy and the other members of the Tammany Hall Campaign Committee, appealing for contribution to defeat the "Roosevelt policies."

"It is naked appeal to the power of the purse," said Col. Roosevelt, "a naked appeal to the twin emotions of fear and greed, and a frank admission that only by a large outlay of money will it be possible to beat Mr. Stimson. This appeal from Tammany Hall is in substance precisely the appeal which has been made by the great financiers who desire to obtain or retain improper special privileges. There has been a deliberate effort on the part of these business men who are crooked to mislead and frighten their colleagues who are not crooked and especially to mislead and frighten the small busines men by telling that disaster impends if Stimson is elected governor, because Stimson is closely allied with me, and I, forsooth, am a dangerous man and especially dangerous to business.

"I do not think this appeal has had as much influence as I at one time feared, but still it undoubtedly has had a certain influence. A number of honest business men have been affected by the statements if those whom, even if they distrust, they look up to as leaders in the business world, and in consequence some of those honest business men have shown symptoms of that specie of fright which makes men especially dangerous."

Col. Roosevelt will remain in Syracuse until 11 o'clock in the morning. Tomorrow afternoon he will go to the northern part of the State, speaking at Ogdensburg at night.

Forced Into Personalities.

New York, Oct. 25.—John A. Dix turned on his opponent, Henry L. Stimson, tonight and attacked his record as a prosecutor of the sugar trust. In a speech delivered here the Democratic nominee for governor declared that the Republican nominee had acted contrary to "business standards" and to a "nice sense of honor" when he resigned as Federal district attorney with the sugar litigation unfinished and practically forced the government to employ him as special counsel to continue the prosecution at greatly increased remuneration.

Mr. Dix asked why Mr. Stimson had been satisfied with recovering on two million from the American Sugar Refining Co., when the government's original claims amounted to $9,000,000. Finally, he assailed Mr. Stimson because "the men of great wealth and social position at the head of the company have entirely escaped punishment."

Mr. Dix prefaced his arraignment with the assertion that he was forced into personalities by the tactics of his opponent and Col. Roosevelt to whom he referred as Mr. Stimson's "nominator."

"It is source of regret," said he, "to observe that my opponent has seen fit to make this largely a campaign of personalities instead of a temperate and reasoned discussion of the issues before the people and among other things has chosen to refer to me as a 'reckless liar,' and an 'upstart.' He has called me a reckless liar because I have characterized his nominator in language which I shall neither qualify nor withdraw and complete justification for the use of which has been, I submit to the voters of the State, furnished by the recent activities and past performances of the man who has done more to destroy business confidence and unsettle values than any man who has ever appeared in the public life of our country."

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 25.—Former Congressman Simon P. Wolverton died at his home this afternoon from a second stroke of paralysis. He was 73 years old. Mr. Wolverton was one of the most prominent attorneys in Pennsylvania. He was also counsel of the Philadelphia and Reading railway company.

ALTITUDE FLIGHT FEATURE OF MEET

Ralph Johnstone Soars 7,303 Feet Snatching Laurels From Drexel.

BATTLED WITH A SNOW STORM

Matham's Rapid Descent Frightened Spectators.—Graham-White Had Trouble With His Machine.—Stunts of Other Aviators.

New York, Oct. 25.—The American altitude record that J. Armstrong Drexel so proudly brought down out of the clouds yesterday afternoon in his Bleriot monoplane, was snatched from his grasp today by Ralph Johnstone, in a headless Wright climber. Drexel reached 7,105, but Johnstone topped him today by 198 feet with a new mark of 7,303 feet. He came down chilled to the bone and his goggles rimmed with frost. For half an hour he had battled with a snow storm above the clouds, seeking still higher levels. The undemonstrative Wilbur Wright danced with joy when he glanced at the barograph.

"It's better than 2,000 meters," he cried and began to prance again. He knew then that the fourth day of the International Aviation Meet, at Belmont Park, L. I., had brought him his share of honors.

Hubert Latham, in an Antoinette monoplane, frightened the crowd when he began to do aerial flip haps under the edge of a nasty looking storm cloud, half a mile up in the air. He righted and then shot to earth in one steep rushing swoop. The edges of a tree brushed his descent and punctured one of his wing surface, but he landed with only minor injuiries to his machine and none to himself.

When the meet began with the hourly competition for distance that regularly opens the day's programme, the banging of the bomb found Grahame-White out for his daily promenade around the track. Latham was his only competitor and when engine trouble forced Grahame-White's Farman biplane off the field, it looked as if Latham in his flying fish Antoinette, would have the event to himself. But White was not to be caught napping.

He saw that the scantiest score whatsoever, would bring him second place, and, late in the hour, tinkered up his colliery engine to the last two rounds and took down the easiest hundred dollars of the tournament.

Hoxsey and Johnstone both went up for altitude. Johnstone had entered for distance, but just before he left the ground Wilbur Wright instructed him to go after altitude. In the haste of the moment they both forgot that he was without a baragraph, the instrument which records height, and when he came down from the upper levels he had nothing to show for his effort and was left uplaced. The Count De Lesseps pointed upward much later than the two Wright pupils, but caught them both and, soaring above them, brought down the prize for the first hour.

The second hourly event was a pursuit race. Grahame-White tried his Farman again, found it unreliable, took it off the field for repairs and during his absence saw the lead he gained by his watchful promptness steadily cut down by speedier rivals, who had started later. Hopeless of getting his Farman into running order again, White took out his fast Bleriot monoplane, the first time it has been seen here in competition. He gained steadily on McCurdy, in a Curtiss biplane, but the latter finished first with a lap to the good. It turned out, however, that McCurdy had two pylons in trying to cut the corners fine and the forfeit cost him first place.

In the meantime Hoxsey and Johnstone had gone up for altitude again, accompanied this time by Latham in his Antoinette. The wind had ranged steadily all afternoon at between eight and twelve miles an hour, but now angry looking clouds began to bank up in the north and soon there was a patter of rain. The Antoinette, most beautiful of monoplanes, was soaring right to the edge of a particularly black cloud, its perfect profile in shade outlined a picture of graceful, assured purse. Hoxsey, right over the center of the field, seemed the higher, though and Johnstone far out beyond the back of the grand stand, hidden from those in the boxes and on the benches, was weaving his way in and out of the clouds, now half hidden in mist, now lost completely and again glinting bright in the sunnight.

Suddenly the Antoinette began to caper like a buck and wing dancer.

He had started to come down when he felt the rain and had been caught in a wind flaw. Tossed to one side and the other, first up and then down he tilted his planes and shot down in a swoop as swift as any falcons. In a matter of seconds the rush of his descent had eaten up the half mile between him and the earth and he was hidden behind a clump of trees. Ely, in a Curtiss biplane went out to reconnoitre, found Latham with nothing worse than a punctured wing and a broken skid.

The last event of the day was full of uncertainty and suspense. With very little preliminary maneuvreing, F. W. Radley, of the British team, flashed

BIG SPECIAL OFFER THAT'S THE THING

Golden Opportunity For Workers in Popularity Contest is This Week-Prizes on Display.

The special offer, in which a contestant may secure 18,000 extra votes for every $18.00 in subscriptions turned in during the present big popularity contest, will end next Saturday night, and every contestant that is really interested in his or her work has been striving hard to secure the club. If the reader promised the young lady a subscription, now is the time when it will do her the most good, and now is the time to show her an appreciation of the friendship. Just four more days in which she can secure this excellent bonus offer, which is positively the last of the contest.

There still seems to be a misunderstanding as to the distribution of the prizes in the Star's Contest. The question has been asked, "should the winners of the Grand Prizes also be entitled to one of the District Prizes?"

Thirty-four Premiums in the Contest.

There will be four Grand Prizes and twenty-four district prizes for the young ladies, besides six prizes for the young men's contest, making a total of thirty four in all the entire contest. Only one prize will be given to one winner, so that if a young lady wins one of the Grand Prizes, or one of the District Prizes, she will not be entitled to any other. The same rule will apply to the young men.

Four Winners to Each District.

For the young ladies there are bound to be four winners to each district, and any district, if it should receive either of the Grand Prizes, will have five winners, or if all three of the Grand Prizes should go to one district, that will make nine winners in that District. The Grand Prizes are entirely separate from the District Prizes.

Other Prizes.

For the young men, there will be three prizes to each district, that is, the first three highest in each district will receive three prizes, the young man receiving the highest number of votes will receive the $50 bank account, the next a gold watch, and the third a silver watch. This applies to each district, No. 1 in town, and No. 2 out of town.

However, should the district, in the young ladies contest, not receive any of the Grand Prizes, there will be four winners, namely: The winners of the diamond ring, the Turkish rocker, the ladies' gold watch, or the $25 bank account, for any one of which the lady only has to work against the others in her district.

The young lady who receives the highest number of votes over the entire contest will receive $500 in gold, the next, two trips to Cuba with all expenses paid, the third, a handsome $500 piano, and the fourth to highest over the entire contest will receive a Shetland pony and complete outfit of trap and harness. These are entirely aside from the other prizes which will be awarded to the highest four in each district.

Extra Effort Called For.

Each and every contestant should be working with an extra effort from now until Saturday next which will be Oct. 29th, and the close of the last special offer. This offer allows 18,000 extra votes on every $18 turned in besides the regular amount, and should be taken advantage of by each and every contestant desirous of being a prize winner.

Subscriptions should be turned in just as rapidly as they are received by the contestant even tho' it be but a year's subscription to the weekly Star, which is by mail only. The sooner the subscription is turned in, the sooner the paper will be started and the votes issued. It is not necessay for the contestant to wait till she has completed her club. She should turn this in at once to be of benefit not only to herself, but also to the person from whom she receives the subscription.

Warning to Contestants.

The Contest Manager begs to give a word of friendly warning. Those who are getting in on the offer will have a much better chance of winning than those who do not, for the simple reason that the effort put forth for the next two weeks necessarily brings a double reward. It is just as easy for a contestant to secure a six-months or year's subscription as one for a shorter period. Ask them and you will see that we are right.

Remember there is no limit to the number of clubs. The only limit is the length of time, as this offer positively closes next Saturday night at 10 o'clock, Oct. 29th.

The Club Slips.

The club slips are to be had for the asking at the Contest Department of The Star, just across the street from the Star office. However, contestants do not have to have these slips to turn in their clubs on, just so the Contest Department receives the new subscriptions amounting to $18 the contestant will receive the extra coupon calling for 18,000 votes. The only erstrictions on the special offer are that they must be new subscribers and turned in before Saturday night at 10 o'clock.

Information Volunteered.

If there is anything that the contestant does not understand in regard to this special offer, or in fact regarding any part of the contest, all that is necessary is to write to the Contest Department, or call at the office, and the information will be forth-coming.

Prizes on Display.

The handsome Ludwig piano which will be given as one of the grand prizes is now on display in one of the show windows of I. Shrier, the Reliable Clothier, at northeast corner of Front and Princess streets, while one of the six Turkish rockers may be seen in the windows of the Wilmington Furniture Co., Second and Princess streets. In a few days, the watches and diamond rings will be on display at Honnet's.

NORTH CAROLINA SYNOD.

Strong Sermon by Dr. Wells.—Hon. A. M. Scales Moderator.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Oct. 25.—This evening, in the First Presbyterian church, the Synod of North Carolina, convened in the 97th annual session. Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., of Wilmington, retiring moderator, presided and preached the opening sermon. The theme of his sermon was "The Power of The Resurrection of Jesus Christ," and he laid special emphasis upon the fact that the power of the resurrection reveals the divinity of Jesus Christ in the justification of believers in the fact that it enables them to walk in newness of life and in the assurance of immortality which it gives them.

A large congregation heard Dr. Wells, many residents of Rocky Mount in addition to the ministerial and lay representatives of Synod being present. The sermon was one that will be remembered for its clearness of thought and spiritual truth which were earnestly presented.

Rev. W. D. Morton, Synod's host, spoke of his pleasure at the coming of the body to his church and town. Rev. Dr. Wells respondeu to this welcome. Synod was then constituted with prayer led by Rev. H. G. Hill. Five members of synod were placed in nomination for moderator: Rev. R. P. Smith, E. R. Heyburn, W. R. Winter, C. A. Monroe, and Hon. A. M. Scales. Mr. Scales was elected and conducted to the cnair.

This is the first time a ruling elder has been elected moderator in five years.

Revs. J. N. H. Summerell and A. W. Crawford were elected temporary clerks.

The hours of meeting and adjournment for the sessions of Synod were fixed and this session adjourned with prayer.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRANCY.

State Senator and Legislator on Trial in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 25.—State Senator Holstlaw and J. W. Knox, of Chicago, salesman for the Derby Desk Company, was the first witness called in the trial of Senator Stanton C. Pemberton and Representative Joseph S. Clark, charged with conspiracy in the awarding of the contract for new furniture for the Illinois Legislature.

Senator Holstlaw, was also indicted in the case, but was granted immunity previous to his confession in which he bared the details of the alleged conspiracy.

Holstlaw said he had been promised $1,500 to vote for the Ford & Johnson Company, by A. B. Johnsson, of this city, who declared this was $500 more than either Senator Pemberton or Representative Clark was to get.

J. W. Knox stated that in a conversation Pemberton asked if there was anything in voting for Knox. Knox told him he did not know. Knox said the day before the contract was let he talked with Holstlaw, who also wanted to know how much "was in it" and when Knox asked "how will $500 each do" Holstlaw replied he would not look at that amount. Pemberton said next day, declared the witness, that the firm represented by witness was not going to get the contract.

Otto Frier, who represented the successful bidders in the furniture contract was called by the State. The witness said that he conversed with Pemberton, Clark and Holstlaw about the contract. He said at one time Clark told him he would have to have $1,000 for his vote and that Haltslaw demanded $5,000, but later agreed to accept $1,500. The defense made a motion to have the defendants declared not guilty as no case had been made.

SHERMAN IN RALEIGH.

Distinguished Vice President to be Entertained—Charters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—An extensive social schedule of entertainment has been arranged for Hon. James S. Sherman, Vice President of the United States, when he is in Raleigh Wednesday afternoon and evening in spite of the fact that his mission is a purely political one—that of making a Republican campaign speech. He will reach here on the 4:05 P. M. train and go at once to the home of Col. A. B. Andrews on North Blount street. At 6 o'clock Col. Andrews, first vice president of the Southern Railway, will give an elaborate dinner in his honor. The speech will follow at the Academy of Music at 8 o'clock. From the Academy the distinguished visitor will be escorted to the Capital Club building where there wil be an informal reception in his honor by the club, a sort of "smoker" affair. This will continue to 11 o'clock, when he will be escorted to the Elks' Temple for another informal reception by the men of that crder. He leaves at 2 o'clock for Greensboro.

The Biltmore Development Co., of Biltmore, was chartered today with $20,000 capital by C. S. Reed, J. T. Roberts and X. VanWinkle. Another charter is for the Maxton Drug Co., Robeson county, capital $20,000 by Dr. M. L. Perry and others.

More than 1,200 employes of other railroads with terminals at New Orleans had under consideration the question of calling a strike in sympathy with the Queen and Crescent.

Do You Realize?

That despondency in women is a mental condition often traceable to some distinctly female ill!

Women who are well do not have the blues, neither are they irritable and restless. Derangement of the female organism breeds all kinds of miserable feelings such as backache, headache, and bearing-down feelings. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There is no doubt that it has made many remarkable cures of female ills after all other means had failed. There is hardly a day that some woman does not write us that this simple old medicine, made only of roots and herbs, has cured her of a severe illness.

Here are two such letters — read them — they are genuine and reliable.

Platea, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with backache and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my catarrh is better, thanks to your advice. I will recommend your medicines to all sufferers."—Mrs. Mary Halstead, Platea, Pa., Box 98.

Walcott, N. Dakota—"I had inflammation which caused pains in my sides, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even said 'How poorly you look to-day.' I wrote to you for advice and got it at once. I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and I began to feel better and looked better before I finished the fourth bottle of medicine."—Mrs. Amelia Dahl, Walcott, N. Dakota.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

GREAT RALLY IN COLUMBUS

Estimated That Between Six and Eight Thousand People Were at Chadbourn Yesterday—Addresses and Parade.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Chadbourn, N. C., Oct. 25.—It is estimated that between six and eight thousand people were here today for the great agricultural and educational rally under the auspices of the Columbus county branch of the Farmers' Union. Weather conditions were well nigh ideal, people came from far and near and nothing transpired to mar the perfect success of the day.

One big feature of the day was the parade, which was more than half a mile long and included more than a thousand school children from all over the county, each school being marshaled by its respective teacher or teachers and all forming floats or being designated by some special banner or color. The children formed at the graded school building and joined the Farmers' Union on Second avenue, proceeding thence down Railroad avenue and making a most profound impression upon the spectator. The parade was led by County Superintendent F. T. Wootten and State Superintendent Joyner and besides the school floats there were many of the Farmers' Union in line, a panorama of the evolution in farming and a fine exhibit of improved farming implements and machinery. It was a grand and inspiring sight to see this great manifestation of the revolution that has and is taking place in the rural life of old Columbus.

Dr. J. Q. Alexander, president of the Farmers' Union in the State, could not be present on account of illness in his family, but State Organizer J. Z. Green, of Marshville, was present in his stead and made a capital address. State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner was also present and made an inspiring address along educational lines, while Dr. J. A. Ferrell, of the Hookworm Commission in this State, also addressed the large audience. Hon. J. A. Brown, whom all Columbus delights to honor, was also present and spoke with his usual vigor and enthusiasm for his people.

The exhibition of farm products surpassed even the most sanguine expectations of those who had arranged this feature and the prize list was generous and well distributed. There can be no doubt but that the agricultural and educational interests of the county received a great impetus as the result of the day's demonstration.

The people came for miles and miles around by private conveyance, by railroad and by automobile. The schools made an especialy creditable display, but deserving of special mention was the Wooten School, which was composed of 12 young ladies in spotless white, in a wagon decorated in white and drawn by a team of four fine white mules, with white trappings.

SEARCH FOR AERONAUTS.

A Thorough Search in Canada—Pilots and Aids Still Missing.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Practically every inhabited spot in Middle Canada from the islands of the Great Lakes to the Arctic Circle, however isloated it is, or within 48 hours will be alert to ascertain the fate of the aeronauts who drifted away from St. Louis last Monday aboard the balloon America II., in the International race. Up to a late hour tonight no reassuring word had come through the rapidly growing network of search lines. Allen R. Hawley, pilot, and Augustus Post, aid of the American aerostat and Lieut Hans Gericke, pilot, had not been heard from.

Realization that each hour means lessened probability of escape from the inevitable rigors and climate and dangers of the wild regions into which the sky racers probably have been carried, has made the search strenuous.

Tonight scores of those who know the signs of the skies, the trails of the forests and the ways of the lakes, are using their trained senses in watching for or seeking the balloonists.

With the agents of the Ontario government and the Hudson Bay Company, scouring the woods of Northern Ontario, and the Quebec government is taking similar steps, confidence was expressed that some definite word would be received during the next 24 hours.

SENATOR ELKINS NOT ILL.

Conflicting Reports About His Condition—Physician's Statement.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 24.—Because of conflicting reports as to the condition of Senator Stephen B. Elkins who sick at his home here, Dr. W. W. Golden, the Senator's physician gave out a statement today. The physician, said that many of the Senator's friends throughout the country were caused needless anxiety by the reports and the family desired it to be known that the Senator was not in any such condition as many of these would indicate. The statement says:

"The reports that the condition of Senator Elkins is critical are wholly untrue, and furthermore at no time during his present illness has his condition been such as to give alarm to his attending physician or the members of his family. It is true that Senator Elkins has been more or less unwell since shortly before the adjournment of Congress, and on this account, he spent a few weeks at Hot Springs, Va., immediately after the adjournment.

"His anxiety to be in the best physical condition to take up the arduous work of the next session of Congress, prompted him to accept the advice of his physician, and take an absolute rest from all business and politics. He is free from pain, in the best spirits and is making excellent use of his usual digestive capacity, so well known to his friends, in disposing of three square meals a day. The enforced rest and quiet has done much for the Senator and he confidently expects to be in his seat at the opening of the Senate in December."

TAFT ABOARD FOREIGN SHIP.

Entertained on Republic of Argentina Man-of-War Yesterday.

Washington, Oct. 25.—With the reception of President Taft today the Republic of Argentine acquired the unique distinction of being the first foreign power to entertain a president of the United States on one of its men-of-war. The President with other officials aboard the Argentine training ship Presidnte Sacrimento now anchored off the Washington navy yard.

The President was received in the Captain's dining room which was profusely decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants and the combined flags of the United States and Argentina.

Following the banquet to the President a reception was given to the diplomatic corps, the army and navy, officers of the District and Fedeal Governments and others socially and officially prominent in the Nation's capital.

The crew and cadets were granted shore leave following the festivities.

EMPEROR IN BRUSSELS.

Ruler of Germany Guest of King Albert—Reception.

Brussels, Oct. 25.—Emperor William, of Germany, is now the guest of King Albert of Belgium. The Emperor arrived here this afternoon and was met at the railway station by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by a large suite and was cheered as he passed through the streets, lined with 10,000 troops.

On arrival at the royal palace there was a reception to the diplomatic corps, followed by a dinner of 150 covers given by the King in honor of his royal guests. The toasts were of an extremely cordial nature, King Albert praising the Emperor's noble effort towards the maintainance of the peace of the world, and the Emperor's extolling Belgium's activities in commerce, industries and arts.

A busy programme has been arranged for Emperor William's stay which probably will extend to Thursday night.

GAYNOR IN NEW YORK AGAIN.

Returns From Visit to the President—Praise for Taft.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mayor Gaynor, who returned last night from a visit to Washington, where he was the guest of President Taft, had some impressions of his trip to make public today. Asked whether he thought Washington was better or more orderly than New York, the mayor said:

"Dear me, dear me. Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; but I fear that Washington, from what I saw in a three-mile walk after dark Sunday evening is no better than New York. Now do not presume to say whether it appears to be any worse than New York. But there is no one over there who tries to befoul the city and scandalize its name constantly.

Of President Taft the mayor said: "He is a broad minded, progressive and prudent man. It is always fortunate for the American people to have such a man for President."

SPANISH RULER A MEMBER.

Eastern Yacht Club Held Meeting.—Result of Sonder Races.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 25.—Besides making King Alfonso XIII, of Spain, the fourth honorary member, the Eastern Yacht Club at its Fall meeting, tonight received the deeds of gift of five valuable cups offered for races preliminary and supplementary to the annual July cruise.

The placing of the name of the King of Spain beside those of President Taft, Emperor William of Germany, and Theodore Roosevelt, was with the desire to recognize officially the efforts to King Alfonso in encouraging yachting, especially in the Sonder races between Spanish and American yachts in Spain in 1907 and in this country this Summer. These cups are for ocean races between New London and Marblehead after the Harvard and Yale Rowing race and from Bar Harbor to Marblehead at the conclusion of the annual cruises.

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—Announcement was made tonight that Abe Attell, the title holder, and Frankie Conley, of Kenosha, Wis., will meet in a 20-round bout at the Westside Athletic Club on Sunday, November 13, for the world's featherweight championship.

PAVING MATERIAL.

Whiteville Aldermen Investigating—Whiteville News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 25.—Aldermen Elmore Powell and E. S. Lewis left this morning for Washington, N. C., where they go to investigate a newly patented pavement, being put down there by a Philadelphia company, and which they think may prove the very thing for paving the streets of our town. It is said to be cheaper and better than anything yet investigated. Mayor Davis and Capt. Granger will leave this week for Sumter, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., to also investigate paving material. It is the design of our Mayor and Aldermen to go slowly about adopting paving material, for they want the best, and to make the $20,000 go as far as possible.

Mr. J. R. Williamson was re-elected unanimously, moderator of the Columbus-Cape Fear Baptist Association, that met last week at Tabor. Mr. Williamson says the meeting of the association this year was the best they have ever held, and it will result in great good to the church.

Parties who attended the opening of the county campaign yesterday say they never knew the people more aroused and enthused, and they predict that Columbus will next month give a record-breaking Democratic majority. A gentleman who has just returned from Robeson county says that the Republican candidates are cutting no ice, and when the votes are counted out there will be a Democratic majority of at least 1,500 in Robeson.

Hon. J. A. Brown asks that the announcement be made that it was a mistake about billing him for speeches at Waccamaw township, Hallsboro and Cronly on Saturday, October 29th. He says he is already booked to speak in Bladen on the 28th and 29th, and will be at White Oak on the 29th.

Contractor J. E. Thompson, of Hallsboro Wednesday began work on a handsome residence for Hon. R. H. Powell, of the firm of Powell & Powell, in Whiteville. The new building adjoins his old residence, and will be one of the handsomest homes in this section, containing 12 rooms and all modern improvements. Mr. W. H. Phillips, of Vineland, says he knows of a number of new houses to be built in town this Fall.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Wednesday, October 26, 1910.

I wish I were able to go from the East to the Tennessee line and tell this message to all the people. I have not long to live. I have children and grandchildren; but I say to you that no stroke of this right hand shall aid in putting the Republican party over these children and grandchildren. I say it because I have tried it in the past and, having tried it in the past and having found nothing but ruin and disgrace, I cannot help but fight it now.—C. B. Watson.

A Chicago teacher asserts that a woman's mind is a riddle." It takes male politicians, however, to riddle each other on the stump.

In deciding to leave for the Panama Canal November 10th, President Taft may have concluded not to stay for the Democratic celebration.

Examine your tag and note where you are bound in this campaign to keep North Carolina in the hands of State officials who have no avaricious designs on the school fund.

The Atlanta woman who shut herself in a room and had hysterics because another woman chased her with a safety razor, can now excitedly explain to her friends what a close shave she had.

If you haven't registered so you can vote in the election on the 8th of November, do so at once. The registration books will close next Saturday and you cannot afford to be an indifferent citizen. One single vote may save North Carolina. It is every man's duty to be a man and vote somehow or other.

Let us return to real government by the people. Let the people select their own nominees as well as elect them. A State-wide ballot primary election properly safeguarded by law to punish corruptionists and political tricksters will enable the people to make their own nominations. A primary will take nominations out of the hands of politicians who dominate conventions and really rule the country, while the people are supposed to be the real rulers, but are not, by a jug full.

Society women in some of our large cities have adopted the latest Parisian fad of fondling doll babies and lugging them through the streets, to the theatre and wherever they go. Well, the doll has the pug dog skinned, but a Wilmington man declares that if he catches his wife gallivanting around with either a doll or a little woolly pup he would go right home, assault the cat, break up the crockery and furniture and do other things calculated to emphasize the fact that he can't stand for it.

The Republican proposition for the establishment of a "Tariff Commission" is the despairing effort of standpatters to side track revision of the tariff in the interest of the people. A tariff commission itself might have the appearance of innocence but if the members of the commission were standpatters it would mean the perpetuation of the burdensome protection policy. It would be easier for the protected interests to buy up a commission than to possess themselves of a Congress elected every two years by the people.

When the "fusionists" demanded control of North Carolina they begged the people to let the carcass of the reconstruction record of the Republican party lie buried. Now "the respectable Republican party" (alleged) is begging us to let the record of "fusion" as well as of reconstruction lie buried to rot together. With the past record and present character of Republicanism, in the same old hands, what right has Republicanism to expect any of its promises to be taken seriously by North Carolinians with gray matter?

One of Wilmington's prominent citizens jocosely remarked yesterday that he was heartily in favor of the Charlotte to Wilmington Highway, but he is a little squeamish on one point. The Charlotte Chronicle, having asserted that good roads had caused Charlotte to develop and spread out, he fears that as soon as Charlotte gets in touch with Wilmington over a modern highway, the Queen City might take a notion to grow up all along the road and finally annex Wilmington. It would be a good idea for Wilmington and Charlotte to grow from their respective ends of the highway and divide up the territory so Hamlet and everything south of there could be annexed to Wilmington. We would like to annex Col. H. C. Dockery and Rockingham, but that wouldn't be exactly fair to Charlotte.

BLIGHT OF REPUBLICANISM.

What was done to North Carolina by the blight of Republicanism in the Reconstruction period, and by the double-brewed blight of Butlerism and Fusion from 1892 to 1898, continues to be done to the fine old county of Sampson by the present blight of Butlerism and Republicanism. Sampson county is North Carolina's prostrate county and it is the only county in the eastern portion of the State under the control of Republicans. The present pitiable condition of that county is a living and shameful illustration of what the slime of Republicanism and the grip of Butlerism will do not only to the State but to the counties.

There is no wonder that the Hon. Iredell Meares, Republican candidate for Congress in this (the Sixth District), in his joint debate with present Congressman H. L. Godwin, at Dunn on Monday, declared that he would not "attempt" to defend the record of the Republican party when in power in the State in '68, nor would be attempt to defend the record of the fusionists when in power in the '90s. He may as well have proclaimed that there is no such thing as "defense" of the damning record of the party of the Holdens, the Kirks and the Butlers. Every administration of the Republican party in North Carolina has been a crime against the State and that party not only stands convicted of it, but it will forever clank the chains and wear the stripes placed there by general condemnation. Mr. Meares ought to know better than to expect the people of North Carolina to shut their eyes to the past record of the party to which he now belongs. That record is the history of an orgy of disgrace, debauchment, wreck and ruin inconceivable in a civilized country. It will never be forgotten and no loyal North Carolinian should ever blot from his memory what Republicanism has done to his beloved State. It deserves to be spurned for its infamies, much less be tolerated, even by men who believe in its principles, and certainly not by any North Carolinian who is proud of his State and loves to honor her.

The fact that Mr. Meares and other Republican spielers are asking North Carolinians to place the Republican party in power again is equivalent to begging them to condone its past. They may say that they will not attempt an impossible defense of the blackest record in the history of politics in America but they do actually ask sane voters to trust it in spite of what it has been in the past. No lawyer will place a discredited and characterless witness upon the stand with the expectation of his testimony's being accepted, and as sure as fate there isn't any more reason for them to expect North Carolinians to nestle up to the Republican party either with its past record, its present character or its fatuitous promises.

Republicanism is condemned for being a scourge in the past and should be avoided like cholera for what it is today. The brand of Republicanism which we had in the days of Reconstruction and fusion is the same today as it was then. As evidence of this truth, there is a blackening relic of it in Sampson county where that party controls locally with the usual results—incompetency, dishonesty and ruin. The up-to-date record of Republicanism as observed in Sampson county in the goodly year of 1910 is as impossible of defense as is its record in the days of reconstruction and fusion. A glimpse at the blighting effect of Republicanism in Sampson county will prove that. Ordinarily Sampson should be one of the most prosperous counties in the State, but of all the counties it is in the most deplorable and hopeless condition.

The prostrate county of Sampson is in the blighting grasp of Republicanism. That luckless county gave birth to Marion Butler and it can thank him or its present humiliating position in the sisterhood of counties in North Carolina. It is the native county of George E. Butler, whom it sends forth as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Third District to measure swords with Dr. John M. Faison, the Democratic nominee, who represents the truest and best that is in North Carolina. Just how a Republican county in the midst of Republican ruin can send out a Republican Butler and expect the sensible voters in the Third District to endorse him and the ruinous kind of Republicanism he represents is positively beyond reasonable comprehension. Yet, this Mr. George Butler, in his joint discussion with Dr. Faison has been boasting of Republicanism in Sampson. Dr. Faison in order to ascertain exactly what Republicanism has done for good old Sampson, wrote to State Treasurer B. R. Lacy to get the standing of Sampson among the other counties of the State. The reply of State Treasurer is as follows:

"For the year 1908, my Treasury books show that Sampson county received from the State of North Carolina $8,271.18 more than she paid into the State Treasury. These books make the total amount that the State pays out for Sampson county $18,686.42, and the county only pays in $10,414.24. I have to go into the pockets of other counties to make up the deficit of $8,271.18. To make it clearer: If all counties in the State were like Sampson, we would be hopelessly bankrupt, as she does not furnish one cent towards the support of her Legislature, her judges, or her State officers. In fact, Sampson county has a larger deficit than any other county in the State.

(Signed) "B. R. LACY.

"Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 7th, 1910."

There is some more of your damnable Republican record. What better evidence will the taxpayers of eastern North Carolina want that Butlerism and Radicalism will blight and destroy and bankrupt and ruin the State or county where it gets a hold? If the condition of finances in Sampson county were to prevail in all the counties of North Carolina the entire State would be hopelessly bankrupt. Your beautiful Republicanism which enables a county to pay into the State Treasury in taxes only $10,414.24 and receive back in State benefits $18,686.42, places Sampson in the list of what are called "pauper counties." The difference between the taxes paid in and the benefits paid back to Sampson is $8,271.18, which amount represents Sampson's actual deficit. If Sampson were a grocery store the sheriff would put the lock on it as an establishment that couldn't pay expenses. Sampson, fertile and inhabited by many splendid people, is simply in a hole. Her progress is handicapped by Republicanism and Butlerism and the facts and the records plainly speak for themselves.

Every young man in North Carolina should read the history of Republicanism in North Carolina from the days of Reconstruction down to the days of Fusion and down to the present period in which Sampson's Republican sheriff was sent to the penitentiary for robbing his pauperized county. Every native son of North Carolina should love his mother State, defend her honor and protect her from vandalism and vampyrism whatever may be its source. The rotten and debauched Republican party has no earthly claim upon any North Carolinian, so, therefore, the young men of North Carolina should go to the polls and aid in burying the presumptions of hopes of a party which has nothing to stand upon but its past repulsive record and its latter day promise of respectability, which has yet to be acquired for it cannot be inherited.

We are gratified to note that so far during this campaign none of the spielers have alluded to each other as "lantern-jawed", "box-ankled," or "tallow-faced" sons of a degenerated ancestor.

For the benefit of our precious little friends we will state that if they will watch the advertising columns of The Star they will see that Santa Claus will soon be getting ready to "come back."

To be a North Carolinian or not. That is the question. 'Twere better to vote right than to vote wrong and drag through the weary years of life trying to live down the harrassing folly of having been a disciple of—of "the nameless one."

ANSON BAPTISTS.

Association at Cedar Grove Held During Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, Oct. 25.—The Baptists of Anson county held a most enjoyable Associational meeting with the Cedar Grove Baptist Chuch. Every possible effort was successfully made by the hospitable people of that community to entetain the visitors and show them that their coming was a real pleasure.

The meeting was largely attended and very enthusiastic. Many more would have attended Wednesday but for the steady rain throughout the day. Thirteen churches united in the new organization and plans were made for progressive work the coming year.

Dr. W. J. McLendon, of Wadesboro, was chosen as moderator, I. F. Thomas, of Red Hill, as assistant moderator, J. M. Broadaway, of Cedar Grove, church clerk, W. M. Morton, of Wadesboro, Treasurer, Rev. T. W. Cambliss, was re-elected as a member of the State Mission Board.

The reports from the churches show gain in every instance, each church reporting baptism for the year. The offerings for benevolences were above the expectations and in all particulars the past year was one of progress.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"When speech and platform conflict always take my latest utterance," is one of T. R.'s 57 varities of hot stuff."—Washingtoin Post.

All maps of the route taken by the airship America show that it tried hard to get to Europe but was being driven steadily by gentle breezes towards Savannah. It probably would have landed here if the steamship Trent had not butted in.—Savannah News.

Perhaps President McRea, of the Pensylvania, might find that well managed railroads are earning even more than the seven per cent. minimum he proposes if the earnings were not scattered about among so many express companies, fast freight lines, car repairing companies and other ingenious enterprises.—Indianapolis News.

The "dizzy sixth" is the term employed by the Rockingham Post to describe how affairs look in that congressional district. Never mind! By the ninth of November the sixth will be ready to take up the march of progress once more.—Charlotte Observer. The "dizzy sixth" nothin'!—or maybe you mean the district that makes other districts dizzy watching it. anyway, there has been no break in the march of progress and up a Democratic majority that will make some other districts dizzy.—Lumberton Robesonian.

The Wilmington Star has caught the cue from The Chronicle. From recent expositions in this paper of the political situation in North Carolina, it builds a column editorial on the necessity of waking up the Democrats. The Star comes to the conclusion that it pays to get the Democrats scared. "We believe," it says, "the State is safely Democratic, but we hope all the Democratic hosts will get so 'scared' they will roll up a majority of 40,000 to 50,000. A big majority certainly would deter Butler from coming back again and it would save North Carolina Democrats lots of trouble in 1912, when a President is to be elected." In all candor there is reason for the scare. The Republicans are not hoping for much this year beyond the cutting down of Democratic majorities, with a view to paving the way to the capture of the State two years hence, and to maintain their majorities is going to repuire the most strenuous exertions of which the Democrats are capable.—Charlotte Chronicle.

MR. R. E. BLAKE ASSIGNS

Mr. Allison Alderman Named as Trustee, the Deed, However, Being Subject to Two Mortgages. Two Judgments.

Mr. R. E. Blake, who for some time has been doing a general hardware business at No. 10 Market street, made an assignment yesterday morning, naming Mr. Allison Alderman as trustee, the deed, however, being subject to the rights and possession of Messrs. W. A. Whitehead and A. S. Winstead, mortgagees, who are now in possession of the property.

The deed of assignment sets out that R. E. Blake is indebted to various parties and is unable to meet the various demands made upon him and being desirous of making an equitable distribution of his property and effects upon his creditors, after reserving for himself the exemption allowed by law, turns over all and singular stock in trade, goods, wares, merchandise, book accounts, choses in action, etc., to the trustee, and the remainder of the deed contains the usual provisions among which is that the trustee shall pay to ex-Judge E. K. Bryan the sum of $200 for legal services and advice in connection with the drawing of the paper, and the last clause is to the effect that the deed is subject to the mortgages as above stated.

Some days ago Messrs. Kenan & Stacey, as attorneys for the Richmond Cedar Works and the Simon Manufacturing Co., instituted in Justice Bornemann's court two suits against Blake, the former action being for $36.51 and the latter for $60.70. The hearing was set for October 18th at which time a continuance was requested until the 25th. Ex-Judge Bryan appeared for the defendant. The cases were heard yesterday afternoon and judgment for the amounts sued for were given. However, the deed of assignment had already been filed for record.

It is stated that the mortgages aggregate $6,850, and were given only a short time ago, one filed for record this month. The attorneys in the above named actions are now examining the mortgages, with a view of ascertaining whether or not they are defective as they have been informed.

"ABRAHAM'S OBEDIENCE."

Subject of Stirring Sermon at Trinity Church Last Night.

The revival at Trinity Methodist church which began Sunday night continues with increased interest and attendance, the church last night being taxed to its capacity. The pastor is being assisted by Rev. C. A. Jones, of Scotland Neck, who preached a strong, forceful and impressive sermon last night on "Abraham's Obedience." Mr. Jones has made a most favorable impression upon those who have heard him. Great interest was manifested in the service and at the conclusion of the sermon, when the invitation was extended, a large number of church members went forward and asked for prayer that they might live a better and more consecrated life. Fifteen who have never professed in Christ, also went forward and asked for prayer.

A big feature of the meeting was the singing of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Butler, who last week assisted in the Fifth Street Methodist church revival. Mr. and Mrs. Butler will leave the latter part of the week for Cardenas, N. C., where they will spend a few days before going to Elmhurst, Long Island, for an engagement.

Services today at 3:30 and 7:30 P. M. The public cordially invited to attend.

THE NEW HOTEL.

Wilmington Portion of Stock Practically Completed—Mr. Hooper.

Interest in the new hotel is unabated. Monday $1,700 of stock and yesterday $1,800, was subscribed for. There are now 103 subscribers to the stock and the enterprising Wilmington merchants are the holders of much of it. Mr. Carter leaves for the out-of-town cities in a day or two and it is most gratifying to be able to show these cities that Wilmington is alive to its opportunities, progressive and active. Charlotte people are none the less interested as the following from the Charlotte Chronicle shows:

"With 70 applicants for the position of manager before them, the board of directors of the Atlantis Hotel Company at Wilmington yesterday formally selected Mr. Charles E. Hooper, of Charlotte, as manager of the new hotel to be erected at Wrightsville Beach. The directors yesterday awarded the contract for the preparation of the plans and specifications to Milburn, Hester & Co., architects of Washington, D. C.

"The architects will hurry the work of finishing the plans and specifications for the new hotel, which will cost $250,000 and the actual work of construction will begin as soon as the material can be placed on the ground after the specifications are finished. The site for the new hotel will be just south of the Tarrymoore-Hotel. It is hoped that the hotel can be completed in time to be ready for the Summer season next year, opening June 1st.

"Mr. Hooper will keep thoroughly in touch with the new enterprise and by the time the building is ready for occupancy he will have purchased the entire equipment of furniture, linen, silverware and other tableware, equipment for the kitchen and everything necessary for the up-to-date operation of an up-to-date resort hotel. Mr. Hooper is one of the most capable and experienced hotel men in the South as well as one of the most popular. Mr. Hooper will still run the Buford Hotel here."

Sues for Amount of Commission.

Justice Harriss yesterday afternoon heard a civil action entitled J. G. Wright & Son against F. G. Punke, for $90 alleged to be due as commission as the esult of the sale of a piece of property on the wharf to Mr. C. J. Mitchell. The plaintiff company contends that after placing the property in its hands for sale the defendant sold the propoty to Mr. Sigmond Bear, who afterwards sold it to Mr. Mitchell, thus depriving them of the commission they were entitled to, having secured a purchaser at the figures given them by Mr. Punke. The defendant, represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., contends that the plaintiff company is not entitled to recover. C. C. Loughlin, Esq., represented the plaintiff company. Justice Harriss reserved his decision until today.

—Among the guests at The Orton yesterday were J. W. Merritt, Greensboro; J. E. Person, Fremont; Mrs. J. M. Smith, Elkton; C. C. Allison, Raleigh; E. M. Barnes, Fair Bluff; Geo. H. Nash, Durham.

MR. M. H. BRIMMER TO TRAVEL.

Popular Young Man Goes With St. Louis Coffin Company.

Mr. Mavin H. Brimmer, who has been with Mr. Walter E. Yopp, the well known undertaker for the past three years, has resigned his position to take a traveling position with the St. Louis Coffin Company, his resignation being effective November 1st. This announcement will be received with genuine regret by his hunderus of friends in this city. Mr. Brimmer, a native of Danville, Va., came here about three years ago from Oxford, N. C., where he held a position in an undertaking establishment, and during this time has made many friends who will regret to learn that he has decided to take a position on the road, making it necessary for him to give up his residence in this city. He is a licensed embalmer with a thorough knowledge of the undertaker's business and withal a most courteous and affable young man. While sincerely regretting that he is so soon to give up his residence in this city, his many friends wish for him the full measure of success in his new position.

Mr. Brimmer is succeeded by Mr. J. H. Mitchell, of Louisburg, a young man of experience and ability, who has recently held a position with Brown's undertaking establishment in Raleigh. Mr. Mitchell has already arrived and has entered upon his new duties. He will be given a warm welcome to Wilmington.

REV. MR. SMOOT TO VIRGINIA

Richmond Hears Report that Popular Wilmington Pastor is to Go to Epworth Church, Norfolk —Conference.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 25.—Among the many pastoral changes which are predicted to occur when the Virginia conference of the Methodist Church, South, convenes here on November 9th, the name of Rev. T. A. Smoot, at present pastor of the Grace M. E. Church at Wilmington, N. C., is mentioned. Though not now a member of the Virginia conference Rev. Mr. Smoot will be transferred from the North Carolina conference to this one, is the report, and that he will be warmly welcomed goes without question, being well known in Virginia as an able minister.

It is reported he will go to Epworth Church, Norfolk.

It has been known here for several days that the transfer of Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Church, of this city, to the Virginia Conference was imminent, but until the receipt of the above special telegram from Richmond, the Star was not at liberty to make public use of the information. Rev. Mr. Smoot is completing his third year at Grace, one of the most desirable charges in the North Carolina Conference, and his congregation had cherished the hope that he would remain with the church for the full four years, so that in the transfer, not only Grace church but the North Carolina Conference will lose one of its strongest and most able men.

It is known that Bishop Hendrix, who will preside at the next session of the North Carolina Conference at Elizabeth City, has had the matter of Rev. Mr. Smoot's transfer under advisement upon request of the Virginia Bishop for some time and an intimation of his purpose to grant the transfer has been received by those prominent in Methodist Episcopal church councils in this city, with the result that for the past week every effort has been exhausted to retain Mr. Smoot, both at Grace and in the North Carolina Conference where men of his ability and standing are scarcely equal to the call of the larger and more important charges within the bounds of the conference. Epworth Church, Norfolk, is one of the largest and most influential pastoral charges in the Virginia Conference and the call to Mr. Smoot from there, entirely unsolicited, is the highest compliment to him as a man and a minister of the gospel and is really a compliment to the North Carolina Conference in that the Virginia body found it necessary to draw upon outside States when there are so many able preachers within its own bounds.

Rev. Mr. Smoot, although yet a young man, is accounted one of the most able men of his church and his loss to Wilmington will be keenly felt. He has served important churches here, in Fayetteville and in Durham and is bound to this city by ties of marriage which make it especially hard for Wilmington people to give him up. Affable, polished, with a charming manner, an able and eloquent pulpit orator, Mr. Smoot has endeared himself to the people of Wilmington as a whole and the regrets at his going will by no means be confined to those of his own denomination. He is a graduate of Trinity and completed his theological course at Vanderbilt. Only the past Summer he attended the great World's Missionary Congress at Edinburgh and since that time his services have been in constant demand as a lecturer. He visited the Norfolk Church soon after his return to America and Epworth church, of that city, to which he will be assigned upon his transfer to the Virginia Conference, was one of the first to extend him an invitation to lecture upon this great world's mission effort. He is now at Durham and lectured last night in that city on the "Passion Play," which he witnessed while away.

Being out of the city Mr. Smoot could not be seen last night with reference to his probable transfer to the Virginia Conference, but it is known that he has rested the case entirely in the hands of his Bishop, the conference and his presiding elder, Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, who stated last night that he was not in position to either deny or confirm the news of the transfer, having heard nothing very ecently from Bishop Hendrix, through whom the negotiations for the transfer have been in progress. However, regretful as the news may be, it is a foregone conclusion that the transfer will be made.

TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL.

Began Last Night With Gratifying Attendance—Much Interest.

With a most gratifying attendance, including nearly all the officers and teachers of the two Sunday Schools, the first session of the training school for St. Paul's and St. Matthew's Lutheran churches was held in the Luther Memorial Building last night. Each and every one present manifested the deepest interest and the attendance at the next meeting, Tuesday night of next week, is expected to be even larger. Mr. W. W. Koch made an interesting address on Sunday School organization; Rev. H. E. Beatty, pastor of St. Matthew's church, gave a lecture on the Bible and its divisions, while Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's church, devoted his time in explaining the necessary equipment of Sunday School teachers. The teachers, number about 35, had their pencils and note books and took notes and at the conclusion of the remarks of the instructors were asked questions, which were answered in a way that gave unmistakable evidence of the fact that they had paid strict attention to the remarks of the speakers. Miss Berta Hanson presided at the piano and a number of songs were rendered during the evening. The next meeting will be held Tuesday night of next week at St. Matthew's church.

SIX MONTHS ON COUNTY ROADS

Sentence Given George Brown, Colored, Alleged Chicken Thief—Appeal to Superior Court—Other Cases Yesterday.

George Brown, colored, who was caught at the hennery of Mr. J. O. Brown, in East Wilmington, Monday night, later arrested by Constable Savage and incarcerated in jail in default of bond, was arraigned before Justice Harriss yesterday morning on two charges—attempt to commit felony and forcible trespass, and bound over to the Recorder's court.

The case was called in the Recorder's court at yesterday's sitting, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., appearing for the prosecution and Thos. D. Meares, Esq., for the defendant. When arrested Monday night the defendant is alleged to have said that he was not at the hen house of Mr. Brown for the purpose of stealing chickens but for the purpose of meeting a woman acquaintance. On the witness stand yesterday he testified that he was on his way to a woman's house for a sack of collards, thus explaining the presence of the sack on his back. The Recorder, however, did not put much faith in the explanation and found the defendant guilty in both cases, sentencing him to three months in each case. Mr. Meares gave notice of an appeal to Superior Court and stated that he felt sure that he would be able to clear his client. In default of bond the negro was remanded to jail.

Fleddie Backus, colored, who has been before the Recorder any number of times and seen much service on the county farm, was called to answer the usual charge against her of disorderly conduct. She was given 30 days on the county farm.

C. S. Dortch, a white man, was required to pay $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Lillian Lee, a white woman, of unsavory reputation, charged with disorderly conduct, was called and failed and her bond of $10 was declared forfeited. The case against her was continued and an effort will be made to recapture her and take her before court for trial, the forfeiture of the bond not settling the case against her. Katie Williams, colored, was assessed $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

FOUR WERE RESCUED.

Three Women and One Man Each Over a Hundred in Fire.

New York, Oct. 25.—Three women and one man, each reputed to be more than 100 years old, were among those rescued when a fire broke out in the cellar of the home of the Daughters of Jacob tonight. There were 105 other women in the home and in an annex 80 old men. But few of the inmates were able to make their way to the street without assistance.

Mrs. Esther Davis, who is reputed to be 116 years old, was one of the first rescued by two policemen who carried her down the stairs. Mrs. B. Marcus, said to be 106 years old and a donator of the home, and Mendel Diamond, who is recorded as being 108 years old, were also carried out through dense smoke. Many of the aged occupants who tried to make their way out of the building, were overcome and were dragged out of the smoke filled halls. The fire caused small loss.

AFTERMATH OF STORM.

Ten Thousand Islands Swept by Tidal Wave—Everglades Country.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 25.—A belated appeal for aid was received here today from Punta Rosa, on the gulf coast, reporting that the Ten Thousand Islands were swept by a tidal wave during the recent West Indian storm and that all residents who escaped were in destitute circumstances.

Small settlements were wiped out of existence and many residents saved by climing into trees.

G. W. Storter, a merchant of Everglades, brings the news of the ruining of crops, the wrecking of all business houses, and the desolation of that region.

C. G. McEneky, of Chokoliskee, reports the drowning of many women and children of that section, the men seeking safety in trees.

H. W. Martin, of Bokeelia, reports the washing ashore of 17 bodies, supposed to be those of sailors who perished during the storm.

The schooner Eureka arrived today from the devastated area, bringing a petition from Chokoliskee, asking the local board of trade for assitance. A cargo of provisions will be sent out from Tampa tomorrow.

In discussing the trade, President Herrman said:

"The deal has been in progress of completion for almost a week. Various other players were mentioned from time to time, but Managers Griffith and Dooin finally agreed on these eight players. I believe that the deal will benefit both clubs, and I do not hesitate to say that I am fully convinced that it will work a great good for our team."

BALLOON LOST ON LAKE?

Reasons for Belief That America Went Down in Lake Superior.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 25.—That the balloon America II. was lost on Lake Superior is the belief of W. C. Devereaux, weather forcaster of Milwaukee.

"There was a 'low' moving this way when the balloons started from St. Louis," said Mr. Devereaux, "and this 'low' caused the wind to blow from the south about the time the balloons reached Lake Michigan. This south wind, of course, took the America II. directly north, as is proved by messages from Hawley."

COLONEL ATKINSON DEAD.

Well Known and Aged Citizen Passed Away Early This Morning.

Col. John Wilder Atkinson, one of Wilmington's oldest and best known citizens, after an illness of some time, passed away shortly before 2 o'clock this morning at his residence, No. 20 South Fifth street, and the announcement of his passing, while not altogether unexpected, will be received with deep regret by many friends in this city. Colonel Atkinson has been in ill health for some time and for some months has been confined to his home. For some days his condition has been regarded as alarming and loved ones realized that the end was drawing near, that he could not survive many days longer.

Colonel Atkinson was thrice married and is survived by his last wife and several children, Messrs. Thos. and Jno. W. Atkinson, of Richmond; Mr. W. M. Atkinson and Mrs. J. W. Murchison, of Wilmington, all of whom will have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement.

FAISON'S IRRESITIBLE CANVASS.

Scores Republicanism and Butlerism. Majority of 5,000 Sure.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 24.—From all sides comes glorious news from the Congressional campaign which "waxes hot" in the Third District. Dr. Faison makes good with every speech and is closing in on Maj. George E. Butler for the remaining two weeks yet left. His campaign closed in Pamlico, Jones and Onslow last week with speaking at Pollocksville where Dr. Faison taunted Maj. Butler in a masterful argument on tariff, wages and labor, which Butler made no attempt to answer.

Dr. Faison read from "The Farmers' Union" and from the Republican and Democratic campaign books all claiming that not the tariff, but demand and supply regulated the price of farm products and the cost of living, except as to the price of manufactured goods protected by the tariff. He showed how our labor was pitted against the pauper labor of the world and how this same labor was annually imported into this country to compete with our labor and lessen the price of labor as well as lessen the prices of farm products produced more abundantly by such imported labor. Dr. Faison contended that Senator Overman's bill, providing for a per capita tax of $10 on immigrants, would stop such wholesale importation of foreign labor, but that bill was voted down by the Republican Senate. Hence, it is easy to see who favors better wages for labor, yet at the same time without extra cost of living. He charged the Republican party with being responsible for higher tariff for consumers but free trade for the trusts as $800,000,000 of free raw materials was imported for them last year. Dr. Faison paid his respects to "Mary Ann", the bond pilferer, by quoting exhaustingly from the best Republican authorities of the State and clearly shows how "unfitten" their judges are to "try a blind tiger near-beer joint."

Dr. Faison's records of Major Butler's county politics is simply obliterating, and the Major's tough, thick hide shows that it has been much punctured. Butler fails to answer in National, State or county politics and the doctor "keeps things going his way all the time." Faison's majority is in the 5,000 notch now and strenuous effort on the part of the Democrats of the district will carry it to 6,000.

Congressman McKinlay, of California, who was defeated by an Insurgent for re-nomination this year, has been in the Third recently—a case of "the dead burying the dead," as McKinlay always defeats his man. With Vice President Sherman at Goldsboro Wednesday, whom Teddy did just as he did the Bears in Africa, the old Third District will have a still larger majority than ever. Dr. Faison's war cry, "Down with Butlerism" grows stronger daily. In every county of the district larger gains are being made and nothing less than 5,000 majority will be voted, at the lowest figures. This being the district of the Butlers, the Democrats have determined to down them once and for all times.

DEFINES TEDDY'S ACTION.

Martin W. Littleton Flays New Nationalism—Ideas of the Colonel.

New York, Oct. 25.—A new turn was given to the attack on Col. Roosevelt and his "new nationalism" by Martin W. Littleton, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Oyster Bay district, in an address tonight at Carnegie Hall at a mass meeting held under the auspices of the Democratic League.

"The New Nationalism," he said, "has its source in the abiding disrespect Mr. Roosevelt has constantly shown toward 'our form of republic' which has caused him to show dissatisfaction with the public men of this country as well as its institutions."

Citing criticisms passed upon former Presidents by Col. Roosevelt, Mr. Littleton added that apparently another executive and that one of Mr. Roosevelt's creation, is probably awaiting his place in this hall of infamy. "He (Roosevelt) has not yet completed his symposium of mediacry," continued Mr. Littleton. "He has not concluded his catalogue of incompetents; but there seems to be another President scheduled to fall under his condemnation. There seems to be another who will find his place with Buchanan the 'shifty and selfish politician'; with Tyler, who was a 'politician of monumental littleness'; with VanBuren, who 'faithfully served the mammon of unrighteousness,' with Jackson, who was 'ignorant and headstrong'; with Monroe, who was a 'courteous gentleman of no especial ability'; with Madison, whose incapacity 'brought shame and disgrace to America in the war of 1812'; with Jefferson, 'the most incapable President that ever filled the President's chair,' and this President is awaiting, no doubt, his place in this hall of infamy is that Mr. Roosevelt himself created. It is a pathetic picture of broken friendship, it is a sad comentary upon the stability of political alliance to see a patient, just, earnest, pain, and rugged judge, who occupies the position of President, almost crowded out of his place and excluded from the prerogatives of his office by a man who continues to reign wherever and with whomever he may be.

"Is it any wonder then that he preaches 'new nationalism'? Having gotten his view respecting eight presidents of the United States and having surprised his attitude toward a ninth, need we be surprised that he finds no difficulty in urging a radical change in the structure of the government—a change which is the strangest mixture of socialism and empire; a most unique union of despotism and disorder?

In the wide range of his active mind he had never encountered a structure of authority which he would not change; a form of government which he would not alter; a society which he would not transform. In the long reach of his ample and enriched years he has never met with a philosopher whom he would not advise; a teacher whom he would not instruct; a soldier whom he would not command; a king whose sceptre he would not wield; a book which he would not re-write; a religion which he would not re-organize; a civilization which he would not reconstruct.

"In government bound by no law; in life bound by no policy; in intercourse bound by no attachment; in debate bound by no record; in society bound by no conventions; in conduct bound by no traditions; in attack bound by no strategy; in retreat bound by no order; in ambition bound by no limit, he towers today the embodiment of conscious and unconstrained power. He is the final, conclusive and dogmatic answer to the riddles of the universe."

"Il Trovatore" by Verdi was sung in English at the Academy of Music last night by the Aborn English Grand Opera Co., and the large audience and the frequent and prolonged applause demonstrated again that Wilmington people appreciate the best in the art of music.

The audience was large, representative and cultured, and abundantly capable of judging the merits of the singers. Many of the most talented musicians of the city were heard in very high praise of the singers, each and every one of whom is a finished artist. The cast follows: Leonora, Edith Helena; Inez, her attendant, Elizabeth Harris; Azucena, supposed mother of Manrico, Louise deBaron; Manrico, the troubadour, Henry Taylor; Ruiz, his follower, Philip Fein; Count di Luna, George Pickering; conductor, Carlo Micosa. The company has its own orchestra of 11 pieces.

At the Bijou Today.

"Under the Old Apple Tree" and "The Road to Richmond," are the features of the pictures that will be shown at the Bijou theatre today. The latter is a romance of the Civil War and will no doubt be seen with usual interest, while the former is also an excellent picture.

The Crystal Palace.

The splendid bill at the Crystal Palace this week is drawing large and well pleased crowds. The bill is one of the best ever put on at the Crystal and each and every number is making a distinct hit with the large audiences. The Lewises, the black face comedian and the violinologist, are all good and with the two reels of motion pictures give a most interesting and varied programme.

Joyland.

Two feature films will be shown at this ever popular play house. There has been any amount of comment on the pictures since the new machine has been installed. Programme for today will be dots and dashes, in which the leading part has been picked from the life of a retired broker. The scene is laid in Wall Street. Next will be "His Lordship," a farce comedy, that will please all. Entire change of programme today.

PLOT AGAINST FRANCE.

Premier Briand Created a Sensation —Had Confessions.

Paris, Oct. 25.—On the re-assembling of the Chamber of Deputies today after the Government had been attacked by the socialists, Premier Briand created something of a sensation by declaring that he had proof through confessions of the leaders of the recent railroad strike that there was a deliberate plot to ruin France by violence, anarchy and Civil war.

The Premier said the cabinet was studying a plan to prevent a repetition of such strikes while at the same time guarding the legitimate rights of wage-earners.

The socialists members of the chamber made a violent demonstration against M. Lepine, perfect of Paris, and the head of the police was forced to withdraw. They denounced the ministry for throwing the military resources of the country to the service of capital, asserting that such a procedure only increased the war among classes. The discussion went over until Thursday.

A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try it Free

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practised the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure. Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Graveline of 98 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich., Mr. J. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City and thousands of others. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, or if you want to try it first a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building Monticello, Ill.

FASHIONABLE HORSE SHOW.

Taft and Cabinet Present at Opening. Tragedy Narrowly Averted.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The President and Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen Taft, members of the cabinet and diplomatic corps and the social self National capital graced the opening of the Washington horse show today at the American League Baseball Park. As guests of honor were the officers and cadets of the Argentine cruiser Presidente Sarmiento, which is anchored in the Potomac river.

A tragedy was narrowly averted in the class of local hunters when Miss Jeanette Allen, daughter of Major Henry T. Allen, U. S. A., riding Yellow Stone Regent, was thrown from her mount. Miss Allen fell under the horse, but with rare presence of mind, rolled over to escape being trampled upon and sustained only a few slight bruises.

The most exciting event of the afternoon was the attempt of Miss Katherine Cherbonnier to break the world's high jump record on Roustabout, owned by Louis Leighton. After clearing the bar at six and one-half feet, the attempt at higher hurdles was postponed until tomorrow because of the slippery conditions of the tan bark caused by a slight rain.

In the sporting tandem class honors went to Grand Slam and Roustabout, ridden by Louis Leighton and to Mrs. Allen Potts, of Virginia, riding Black Bird with D. H. Andrews' Garrone.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

High Prices Resulted From Small Estimates of the Yield—Trading Extremely Active—Advanced 39 Points.

New York, Oct. 25.—The census report which was published before the opening of the cotton market this morning was regarded as confirming small estimates of the yield and was followed by the most sensational advance in prices that has occurred since the culmination of the old crop bull campaign. Trading was extremely active, reflecting a renewal of the general buying movement as well as a scare of shorts, who had sold on the recent decline of about a cent a pound and the market closed firm at a net gain of 56 to 61 points.

The opening was firm at an advance of 5 to 24 points on the census figures and inside of the first half hour, active months were anywhere from 20 to 40 points above the closing figures of last night. Realizing was heavy on this advance, but only slight reactions occurred and the upward movement was soon resumed on a constantly broadening volume of outside demand. At the high point, the Winter months were selling at practically 14 1-2 cents and the general list was about $3 per bale above the closing figures of last night. Reports that Southern spot markets were readily responding to the advance encouraged buyers here in the late trading. The census report proved a general surprise. On the decline from 15.01 to 13.91 for January during the past week or ten days there had been a tendency to increase estimates of the crop and its larger crop views by showing nearly six million bales ginned to October 18th. The actual figures, 5,410,000 bales being under the ginning to the same date last year were consequently regarding as strengthening crop estimates of eleven million bales or even under and this view of the situation was reflected in the general demand on the advance. Aside from the census report there was nothing fresh in the way of news and following the cold weather, seasonable conditions seemed to prevail over the South.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today, 98,343 bales against 95,768 last week, and 89,363 last year. For the week 450,000 against 451,576 last week and 420,464 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 13,241 against 15,051 last year.

Spot closed quiet and steady, 30 points advance, middling uplands 14.60; middling gulf 14.85; sales 6,683 bales.

Futures opened firm and closed firm.

CONTRARY FORCES ON MARKET

Held Price Movement Almost Suspended Yesterday—Rise in Call Money Rate Caused Depression and Weak Closing.

New York, Oct. 25.—The contrary forces in the stock market today were sufficient to hold the price movement almost suspended. Dealings were highly concentrated, both on the Buying and the selling sides. This was true not only of the congestion of operations in three or four stocks, but in the large orders executed by single firms. The effect was to suggest a conflict of views between strong speculative operators.

The dealings fell to a low point of activity in the intervals between the transactions on a large scale. The rise in the call money rate shifted the wavering sentiment to the side of depression and made the weak closing.

An attentive eye was fixed on the developments in foreign money markets in conducting operations in stocks. There was a considerable pressure of selling orders for foreign acount in the opening dealings and these were an element in the early weakness displayed by stocks. London selling was accompanied by intimations that fears were felt there that the Bank of England would make another advance in its official discount rate at an early day.

The call money rate went to 4 per cent., in the afternoon, the highest since May and counteracted the London money influence.

The sluggish resistance of the general list to depression was helped by strength of individual stocks and groups, which was not explained by special news. The price of copper declined in trade and there were weak points in the metal groups, United States Steel was supported on the assumption that a favorable construction should be placed upon the quarterly statement. It was taken for granted that the net return, at the lowest esimated figure, would afford so wide a margin over he dividend requirement as to suggest security and stability for the dividend rate.

There was a mixture of misgiving over the steel trade position, dislike of the strong advance in the cotton market and uneasiness over the advance in the call loan rate involved in the late weakness of stocks.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,969,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today 572,800 shares.

GINNERS' REPORT FEATURE.

Decline in Liverpool Not Heeded—Traders Expect Big Crop.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Oct. 25.—Little attention was paid to the decline in Liverpool today or to the perfect weather for developing the crop. The ginners' report was 5,400,000, when 5,600,000 had been expected and the large longs, who had sold their holdings last week began buying at the opening and continued to the close.

This is the record of the day as the spot houses who bought when they were selling sold gradually supplying the demand whenever the market became strong. Hedge selling from the South was a feature which was lacking on the last advance. On the advance the shorts covered freely. Tonight the trade expects that the same operators may buy tomorrow regardless of the crop accounts, which now point to a record crop in the Atlantic States as a result of the continued good weather. Liverpool should advance 11 points tomorrow.

DESTRUCTIVE STORMS.

Sweeping the Coast of British Columbia and Alaska.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 25.—Destructive storms are sweeping the north coast of British Columbia and Alaska, according to advices received today from Prince Rupert. Bridges have been swept away and telegraph and telephone lines torn down by gales and landslides. So far no loss of life has been reported.

The Kyax bridge, one of the largest on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, near Prince Rupert, was wrecked and the tracks were washed out for two miles. The government telegraph line along the Skeenaw river, suffered considerable.

The highest tide of the year came on last Wednesday, the water rising to within a few feet of the Prince Rupert wharf. The Prince Rupert waterfront was devasted for miles, boats and boatnouses being carried away and wrecked.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cadet Frank B. Clay, first-class, United States Military Academy, a son of Senator Clay, of Georgia, has been court martialed and sentenced to dismissal from the Academy, without pay and allowances, until August 28th, 1911, and then to join the first class. The sentence was commuted by President Taft so as to require Clay to be confined to barracks until May 31st, 1911, and during that period to undergo disciplinary tours every Wednesday and Saturday.

Young Clay was tried on several charges of misconduct. He was found guilty of two of the charges—absence from his tent between tattoo and reveille and going beyond cadet lines. He was acquitted on the other counts.

AFTER CHICAGO COMBINE.

Government to Enjoin Chicago Butter and Egg Board.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The suit of the government to enjoin the Chicago Butter and Egg Board from making quotations came before Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States Circuit Court today. Attorney N. J. Moore appeared for the board, and Assistant Attorney W. R. Medaris for the government.

It is the contention of the latter that the quotations come of the board, themselves dealers in butter and eggs, knowing before hand with the quotations they will post, are enabled to make contracts with farmers and dairymen to the detriment of the producers and to the disadvantage of their rivals in business. After hearing argument Judge Kohlsaat declared that the allegations in the bill were not sufficiently specific on the conspiracy charge. Leave of 20 days was given in which to amend the bill.

USED MAILS FOR FRAUD.

Officers of New York Company Were Convicted Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 25.—Charles E. Ellis and Erwin R. Graves, president and vice president respectively, of the Kornit Manufacturing Company, which advertised extensively that it held a patent for making artificial rubber of hoofs and horns of cattle, were found guilty of using the mails to defraud investors in the stock of the company in the United States court today. Judge Hand fixed Friday for pronouncing sentence on the men and they were released in $25,000 bail until that day. Their trial lasted three weeks.

Through advertisements in the "Magazine of Mysteries," and other publications, controlled by Ellis, it was charged, stock in the Kornit company aggregating $371,000 was sold to investors in all parts of the country. The total output of the factory, up till the time it burned, was shown to be $104.

THE PORTUGAL REPUBLIC.

United States Not Ready to Recognize the New Government.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Time is not ripe for recognition of the Republican Government of Portugal by the United States, it was stated by State Department officials today. The United States was one of the first to recognize the provisional goverment by instructing its diplomatic representative in Portugal to carry on any necessary business with the responsible authorities.

When the United States government becomes satisfied that the new government is competent to administer its internal affairs and assumes its obligations with other nations, a minister will be sent to the head of the government, armed with credentials from the United States. This will constitute formal recognition and is the course uniformly pursued.

BURIAL OF DAVID B. HILL.

Many Paid Last Respects to Former United States Senator.

Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 25.—In a typical country burying ground high up on a hill overlooking the village of Montour Falls, where he was born, the body of David Bennett Hill, ex Governor and ex-United States Senator, was laid to rest today while a group of old associates and prominent men of the vicinity stood with bared heads in a pouring rain and paid their last respects.

Owing to the inclement weather the burial service was brief. It was conducted by the Rev. Samuel Eaton, of the Methodist Episcopal church in that place.

Mr. Hill's body was laid beside those of his parents, Cleb and Eunice Hill.

over the line in a Bleriot and vanished into the seat before it was known to any but the judges that he had started in the cross-country race of 80 miles to a captive balloon ten miles east of the course and back again. In less than seven minutes word came back that he had rounded the balloon. His time was incredibly swift.

Radley did the 20 miles at better than 60 miles an hour. His exact time wast 19 minutes, 48 5-8 seconds.

Moisant, in his passenger-carrying Bleriot, started almost as Radley finished and was shortly followed by McCurdy in a Curtiss biplane and Drexel in a Bleriot at intervals of approximately one minute. All three of them got lost and Drexel and McCurdy never finished. Moisant came back in very slow time.

More interest attached to the first appearance today of the new Wright racer, which was uncrated last night and assembled this morning. With Orville Wright in the pilot's chair it was given two trials, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Garros of the French team, caught its time for one lap in the morning trial at one minute 26 seconds, and in the afternoon trial at one minute 28 seconds. There unofficial figures are to be compared with those given out by the judges today for the fastest lap made yesterday by Auburn, in a Bleriot, one minute 24 seconds.

Quite a little bevy of adventurous women went up for short flights during the morning and afternoon. Count de Lesseps took up four during the day and Miss Eleanor Sears, of Boston, made anotner trip with Grahame-White, at a height of about 150 feet, for two rounds of the course. Allen A. Ryan, son of Thomas Fortune Ryan, and chairman of the committee on arrangements, was another enthusiastic passenger in the car of Hoxsey. He came down exuberant with delight.

Tomorrow begins the elimination heats in the trials for the Gordon Bennett International trophy.

Tampa, Fla., October 26.—Special Officer James Casey today testified in the trials of strike leaders for conspiracy, that Jose de LaCampa, president of the advisory board, had made threats to burn Tampa, if the striking cigar-makers were persuaded to go back to work. Thomas B. Fisher, a member of the city council, of West Tampa, testified that de LaCampa told him the murder of J. F. Easterling, a manufacturer, was necessary to prevent strikers from returning to work. W W are made to shape fashionably, to fit comfortably —not to rust, break or tear.

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

Regardless of price, a Warner's shape must be style and comfort perfection—standing, sitting or walking.

The fabrics are especially woven for lightness and strength; the boning is the unbreakable, resilient, rust-proof, celluloid-tipped boning, double throughout the corset, interlined and wrapped in double folds of cloth, making it impossible for the bones to push through.

Buy a Warner's—Give it hard wear. You will find it equal to whatever wearing strain you may put upon it.

We guarantee to your merchant every pair of Warner's Corsets—guarantee them to fit comfortably, not to rust, break or tear.
